

SUPPORTING TEACHING & LEARNING IN SCHOOLS (ADVANCED LEVEL)

Course Type: Advanced level (Level 3)

Course Outline: The Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools framework comprises:

City and Guilds Level 3 Diploma in Specialist Support for Teaching and Learning in Schools

Employee Rights and Responsibilities

Functional Skills Level 2 in English (or GCSE grade C or above)

Functional Skills Level 2 in Mathematics (or GCSE grade C or above)

Who is this apprenticeship suitable for?

Learners aged 16+ Most learners will have completed the Intermediate Level Apprenticeship framework before progressing to this level.

The Advanced Level Apprenticeship for Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools is designed for job roles such as Teaching / Classroom / Learning Support Assistant/ Behaviour Support Assistant /Coordinator/ Pastoral / Welfare Support Assistant

Apprentices learn on the job and attend Appleby Training and Heritage Centre one evening each week to improve their skills and knowledge and acquire the formal qualifications which are required to complete the framework.

Typically it takes between 12 and 18 months to complete this framework.

Course tutor: Sharron Simpson